

Rebecca M. Thibault, Associate

Rebecca Thibault joined Doherty, Wallace, Pillsbury & Murphy, P.C. in 2013 as a business associate and provides legal counsel to a broad range of clients, including private and charter educational institutions and businesses in manufacturing, service, and retail industries. She advises clients on a variety of issues related to general corporate needs, regulatory and compliance matters, corporate transactions, and environmental and employment matters.

In law school, Rebecca was Managing Editor of Washington University Global Studies Law Review. Before attending law school, Rebecca had a career in sales and management positions in the retail and pharmaceutical industries in Hampshire County, where she grew up, and then New York City.

Rebecca proudly serves on the boards of the Springfield Public Forum and Girls, Inc. of Holyoke, captains the firm's team in the Hot Chocolate Run for Safe Passage, and volunteers regularly in the community.
