

Stefan R. Sjoberg, Associate

Stefan Robert Sjoberg joined Doherty, Wallace, Pillsbury & Murphy, P.C. in September 2018, after graduating from Western New England University School of Law. Born and raised in Western Massachusetts, Stefan appreciates the challenges and opportunities that impact our community. His passion for law began at Longmeadow High School where he was introduced to business law classes. His interest in business law continued in college when he studied finance and economics at Quinnipiac University. After graduation, Stefan returned to Western Massachusetts where he attended Western New England University receiving both his Law Degree and MBA.

During law school, Stefan earned four prestigious CALI Awards for excellence recognizing the top performing student in each respective subject. His practice encompasses corporate law, estate planning, probate, and taxation. Stefan has been admitted to the Bar in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and is a member of the American Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar Association, and the Hampden County Bar Association.

Stefan is proud to be practicing law in Western Massachusetts and to be helping residents in the region where he was born and raised. Outside of the office, he enjoys tennis, golf, and cross-country skiing.
